UAW Extends Strike Deadline Against Ford

DETROIT (UP) — CIO President Walter P. Reuther today extended the strike deadline against and Motor company until next Monday to give the union and company more time to explore a new offer from Ford.

The 140,000 Ford workers in 57 plants across the country had been poised to strike at midnight tonight if agreement on their guaranteed annual wage demand had not been reached by then. Reuther said, however, that the union will not extend the contract
